Some thoughts on Stephen Hawking

I remember one time trying to contact Douglas Adams.

I really was serious about it.

I relaxed and cleared my mind. I quietly sought out his essence. All I wanted to do was just say hello. How are you? Where are you now? What are you doing?

Suddenly, I saw this weird image. It was a doorway into a dark howling windy night. Through the passage was nothing. Just blackness and foreboding wind.

As sudden as the image came to me, like a trap door it slammed in my face.

Somewhere in the back of my head I sensed a little voice say:
"We're atheist, you blithering idiot!"

I felt a little sheepish. It really was rude of me. Naive too.

I hope I didn't interrupt tea time with Eleanor.

As for Stephen...

Not going there!

I feel a need to hold off on replying to comments for a spell.

Perhaps in the next issue.

In the meantime, I leave you with another visual enigma.
